

CANNABIS
COMMUNITY CARE AND RESEARCH
NETWORKSM

The Relationship Between Cannabis and Opioids: Prevention and Treatment

Addressing the opioid epidemic using cannabis as a tool in Massachusetts

April 30, 2018 6:00 - 9:30 PM

Holyoke Gateway City Arts

Event Ticket: Early Bird $30 / Regular Price $40

Medical cannabis patients, nonprofits, seniors, and startups get 40% off!

STUDENTS get a FREE ticket, contact Joe Gilmore at joe@massreccouncil.com !

Learn More to Register: <http://cannacenterofexcellence.org/register>

Age 21+ only; NO cannabis will be consumed at the event, dress code business casual

Speakers

Aaron Vega, State Representative, 5th District Hampden

Jennifer Flanagan, Massachusetts Cannabis Control Commission

Dr. Peter Grinspoon, Primary Care Physician, Massachusetts General Hospital

Ezra Parzybok, Western MA, Cannabis Consultant and author of, "Cannabis Consulting; Helping Patients, Parents, and Practitioners Understand Medical Marijuana"

Event Schedule

6:00 – 6:45 Registration

6:45 – 8:00 Panel

8:00 – 9:30 Networking

What can you expect?

- Networking with clinical, research, and cannabis industry leaders
- Interactive vendor learning opportunities
- Event report summary emailed post event
- Hors d'oeuvres and bar

THANK YOU TO OUR 2018 C3RN EVENT SERIES SPONSORS!

Virtual Cannabis Center of Excellence (CoE), powered by C3RN 2018 Cannabis Science, Education, and Networking Series

January - June 2018 Event Series Details

January 2018 - How can we advance cannabis research?

The opportunities for cannabis cultivation, laboratory, clinical, social, and public health research in Massachusetts

February 2018 - Community first!

Models and best practices for ensuring engagement and equitable access, consumption, and integration in the industry in Massachusetts

March 2018 – Research collaborations from seed to bedside?

Medical cannabis cultivation, clinical care, and research models in Massachusetts

April 2018 - The relationship between cannabis and opioids: prevention and treatment

Addressing the opioid epidemic using cannabis as a tool in Massachusetts

May 2018 – Connecting through cannabis education and standards?

Creating pathways for multi-sectorial collaboration to advance cannabis science, education, and innovation in Massachusetts

June 2018 – A community-led cannabis research ecosystem

Advancing the medical and adult-use cannabis research agenda in the Commonwealth

Learn More or Sign Up for Updates:

<http://cannacenterofexcellence.org/register>

The virtual Cannabis Center of Excellence (CoE), powered by Cannabis Community Care and Research Network (C3RN), is a group like minded cannabis industry, advocacy, academic, public health, clinical, patient, policy, and community experts that embrace open-source principles to drive collaborative science in the cannabis industry.

This event series is powered by Cannabis Community Care and Research Network (C3RN)

www.cannaresearchnetwork.com